C. CRISIS IN GERMANY  Fill in the missing information

In 1918 World War One ended. Germany was defeated and had to take full responsibility for the war. This led to the Treaty of Versailles. Germany had to pay $6.6 billion in reparations, which made them bankrupt. Money became worthless, leading to lots of problems and much anger from the German people.

The world around me collapsed. I had to face the consequences and though this did hurt me deeply I realized that Germany was not the world... Otto Frank

As early as 1932, a group of Stormtroopers (Brownshirts) are marching by, singing: “When Jewish blood splashes off the knife.” Otto Frank

Otto served as a soldier and fought for Germany during World War 1, and won an Iron Cross for courage and bravery. Imagine you were Otto hearing this song for the first time. Your family has lived in Germany for generations, and you have a young family. You don’t know how bad things will get under the Nazis, but you are starting to get concerned for your family’s safety. How might you feel? What thoughts would have gone through your head?

YOUR TASK Write a letter to Edith telling her about what has happened, expressing your concerns and sharing with her how you’re feeling about staying in Germany.

Dear Edith,
